Dear Ms Sacher,

How's your life? I am verry sorry for what happened to your young life in the Holocaust. I am verry glad you're alive. 15 years old are you serious, I think your the luckiest girl I ever knew of. It's really fascinating how you snook off with your mom and didn't even get caught. Well do you have any time to visit us? If you do, please come. Also if you do have children tell them I said "Hi and always listen to your mom because she is a great woman." Have a great day and live a happy life.

Dear Ms Gacher

APR 10, 2013

I'm really curious about what happened during the Holocaust. I bet many people admire you for being a brave survivor. Many people who survived might have been scared to tell their story but you were brave to tell yours. I really hope that you can come to our school and answer some questions.

Sincerely:

Dear Ms Sachse

was it really hard when they took
you. How was it to leave Germany
with your mother.
I'm really grateful
that you're alive

I hope you come
and tell me more about your journey.

Love

Dear Ms. Sacher,

I felt the article was touching because I felt like everything was happening to me. Also everything was tragic in this period for all those people.

One more thing is that the Jews were mistreated in a really hurtful manner. Again this letter was dedicated to you.

P.S. Thank you for the article.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Sacher,

I would like to invite you to come to our school and tell us students more about the Holocaust. Also, I would like you to come and tell me and my class how did you feel when you were it and when it swept through the neighborhood. Finally, I'd like you to visit so I can get to know you more.

Sincerely,

Ashley

Dear Ms. Sachs,

Hello my name is Anaya. Liana Vasquez how are you? So I heard you were in the Holocaust. I bet it was very critical during those times. I Really appreciate if you send someone to talk about the Holocaust. We know the state test is coming, and, if we learn about this it will help us in everyday life. Please open your dear heart and please to come our school.

Sincerely

Dear Ms. Sacher,

As a 5th grader our class is currently learning about the holocaust what Hitler did, I can not put in words! It was terrible! And the fact that you had to go through it is unbelievable. We have recently read a news article about you and how you were in one of the concentration camps. We know what you've been through but if you come to visit and tell us even more would be wonderful.

Sincerely
Sara Lazaro

Dear Ms. Sacher,

I really feel bad for what the Nazis have done to your family and you. I'm also very grateful that you're alive right now. You're a very lucky person to have escaped from that concentration camp. How did it feel so hostile in the concentration camp? Was it a very harsh experience for you?

Sincerely,
Leslie Ann Volonco

Dear Ms. Sacher,

I feel horrible for what you had to go through. It must have been very hard to experience this, and you are lucky to still be alive. You are a very brave woman to have escaped. How tough was this experience for you?

Sincerely,
Hillary Diaz

P.S. It would be wonderful if you came here.

Dear Ms. Sacner,

You are so very brave for telling your story. Most people would not want to tell their story because they feel like they are re-living it. Thank you so much. I am really happy! Also, I would be pleased if you come in person and of course your sisters to tell us about the Holocaust. I would be even more educational for us to learn about it if one of the victims come and spoke about it. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Alyssa

Dear Ms. Sacher,

You are so brave, to stand up and say what's on your mind to all those people.

I just wanted to say that it is really amazing what you did for your people, and it's just so sad that they are not living with you. And you are on your own,
I wish you joy, and peace
for as long as you live.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Brown,

I've read your story about your tough times. I have a few questions, what were you thinking of when you were being crammed into a train? Was it scary when all of the commotion happened? Was your family scared? I like the story you wrote a lot of times. It was great how you are talking about everything.

Sincerely,
Lakia Munsterly

Dear Ms. Brown,

I can't believe that you went through all of that horror. It must've been a really traumatic experience for you. Luckily, you lived through it. It's really hard to imagine something like that happening to you. It's just such a horrible thing. At least you're alive and out of that really bad situation. We wouldn't have known you and everything that happened.

Sincerely,
Yvonne Brown

Dear Ms. Brown,

I heard about your story. I know how it feels to lose your family. I'm so sorry.

I hope you have realized just like me, that no matter what happens you always have to stay strong.

If you could I would love if you could come and share your story personally with us.

Since we are learning about the Holocaust, it would be a great honor.

Sincerely,
Tegan

Dear Mr. Brown,
Were you really scared
when, you had to be Crammed on the train
with your family?

Did it hurt you when,
you had to get a mark
on your arm or hand?
I really feel bad for your family. I hope they are in a safe place. I am really sad for the people who died in your life. I am really sorry for your loss.

Dear ^{Ms} Etta Diegel, Hello, I've read your story and it's absolutely inspiring! I believe you are truly an inspiration is the strongest you can be.
Also, I will like to ask if you can come by my class and talk to us about your Journys and how difficult it was! Please, my class has many questions for you if you do come.
Want to sign a book for us and take one! Yours Truly,
